JAPS AFTER THE PORTUGUESE

Twenty-two Japanese were rounded up last night and taken to the police station where they were detained for investigation.

The men live on Beretania street, near Pensacola. For some time past the Japs in the neighborhood have complained that a gang of Portuguese hoodlums have molested them, and even gone so far as to wait until Japanese women left their places of work in the vicinity, and then held them up and robbed them.

Something like this took place Monday night. Yesterday a vigilance committee of six went out. About 8:30 p. m. a Portuguese named Cabral was riding his wheel along Beretania street. The vigilance committee was investigating another Portuguese. Cabral stopped to assist him, and the Japanese then jumped him.

Cabral jumped on his wheel and rode to the police station for help. Meanwhile Officer Richardson arrived. The Japs called out "Portuguese! Portuguese!" and blew police whistles. In a few minutes the street was thick with a howling mob of Japs, who looked so warlike that Richardson fled.

He met Officers Spencer and R. Mossman, who had been sent from the station, and Patrolmen Steward and Aubrey, and the allied forces marched against the Japs, who surrendered. They were charged with rioting, and bail was fixed at $10.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The transport Sumner was scheduled to sail on Thursday, September 20.

Only one person has made application to take the civil service examination next month.

Rayner Sharpe, the customs examiner who has been selected to go to Honolulu as Chief Examiner for that port, was presented with a suitably inscribed gold watch by his fellow-examiners of the San Francisco Custom-house yesterday. He sails on the transport Sumner next Thursday.—Chronicle.

The Janet Waldorf Company is now playing in Oakland.
The Sierra carries to the Coast from Sydney $500,000 in specie.
The American ship S. D. Carleton, Captain Amesbury, will sail for the Sound Friday.

"Commodore" Nicholas J. Weaver, of yacht Norma fame, is a passenger on the Sierra, bound for the Coast. He was picked up at Pago Pago, he having been looking after his estates in the Samoan group which he is promoting. About the only amusement which the commodore found on board on the way up was card playing, and several heavy games are reported.
